Judges for this year's posters were Mrs. Margaret Glover and Mrs. Wendy Richardson.

Appomattox 4-H Members At State Congress

Eleven Appomattox Senior 4-H members are among the more than 1000 teenagers attending State 4-H Congress this week on the Virginia Tech Campus in Blacksburg. State 4-HCongress is the largest single 4-H event in the state each year. Members assemble to compete in various categories of Demonstrations and Illustrated Talk, Talent, Public Speaking, Tractor Operation, Judging events and a multitude of other events. In addition many delegates attend in special leadership categories.

Attending from Appomattox this week are Donna Paulette, Paula Franklin, Vicki Glover, Mary Louise Parris, Pam Moore, Cindy Guill, Billie Brightwell, Robert Dyess, Al Johnson, Steve Cawthorn and David Jones. Accompaning the group is Mr. C. B. Goldman, Extension Agent.

Seven Appomattox 4-Hers will be competing for State Awards in Demonstrations or Illustrated Talks: Donna (Home Management), Paula (Dress Revue), Mary Louise (Automotive Care & Safety), Cindy Guill (Girls Public Speaking), Robert (Veterinary Setience) and Al (Share-the-Fun). Vicki and David will be attending special leadership seminars during the week. Steve will be attending special session on the management of Agri-Business Cooperatives. Billie, attending as a 4-H All Star delegate, will be assisting with the many events and operation taking place at State 4-H Congress.

Named President of Big Brothers of Central Va.

Giles M. Lambert, President of the Board of Directors, recently resigned his office, due to an employment change causing him to leave the central Virginia area. Mr. Lambert who served as Supt. of the Lynchburg Juvenile Detention Home, is moving to Christiansburg where he will be opening a new Juvenile Detention facility. Mr. Lambert, who was re-elected President in December, was one of the founders of Big Brothers of Central Virginia and has served on the Board of Directors since its inception.

Mr. Charlie A. Elliott, a local VPI Extension Agt., who was serving as Vice President, has been elected to complete Mr. Lambert's unexpired term as President and Mr. Arnie H. Uggla, Branch Manager of Columbia Mortgage Company, has been elected to complete Mr. Elliott's unexpired term as Vice President.

Commenting on Mr. Lambert's leaving, Bud Harding, Executive Director, said that "it's as if we had a death in the family." Mr. Lambert's contributions to the Big Brother movement, the United Way campaign and the community in general will be greatly missed," Harding said.

Animal Industry Day — July 19

Animal Industry Day gets bigger and better every year. Last year 2415 people were guests of the Animal Science Department of VPI &SU at their Livestock Center near Blacksburg. We don't know how many people will attend this year, but our program just keeps on getting better.

The program will begin at 9 a.m. on Friday, July 19,1974.

The Honorable John N. Dalton, Lt. Governor of Virginia, will discuss his views on future needs and the priorities for the State of Virginia and how our animal agriculture fits into the needs for the future. Coach Jimmy Sharpe will give us a pigskin preview for 1974.

Before and during lunch, livestock and pasture exhibits will be viewed along with a reining horse demonstration and a discussion of animal health with Dr. Tom Bigg, DVM.

Also during the 11:00 - 1:00 session, equipment for handling and feeding large hay bales and stacks will be viewed.

The afternoon program will lead off with discussions of pasture utilization, forage finishing and waste management.

BLE PLANTED SOYBEANS are rapidly becoming a ed practice for Appomattox farmers. This makes the production of two "money crops" in one year. lanting equipment is required to do a good job. The on the left shows the components of sod planting ot. 1. points out the depth control band that regulates d seed are placed in the soil. 2. this is one section of the ilse opener. 3. some growers find that the use of an ool is helpful, especially on soil that is heavy and or here is one of several types of coulters used for preparing a narrow band of soil.

Last Thursday five treatments or kinds of culters, 2" fluted coulter, 1" fluted coulter, deep ripple, narrow ripple, and narrow ripple with an alfalfa chisel were used in a four replicated demonstration on the G. S. Martin, Jr. farm.

The attempt is to determine whether there is any significant difference in plant stand with the different kinds of equipment.

The picture on the right shows the entire tractor and sod planting rig used for stubble planted beans.

COURSE OFFERED HOW TO STUDY IN COLLEGE

Since the course was developed in 1956 by Professor Schwarz and his colleague at Purdue, Professor H. D. Murdock, it has been offered at all the campuses of Purdue University each summer. It has been offered by YMCA's throughout the United States since 1963. Over 30,000 students have benefited from the program.

The dates, times and location are as follows: August 5-8, 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. at the Central Virginia Community College, Lynchburg, Virginia. The cost of the course is $25.00.

It may seem early, but Fulton Johnson, Executive of the Virginia YMCA suggests that seniors reserve a place now by returning an enrollment form. Forms are available in the high school guidance office, or Virginia YMCA, Box 943, Lynchburg, Virginia, 24505, or phone: 845-1147.

Received FFA Distinguished Service Award

Distinguished Service Awards were presented to four individuals for their significant and outstanding service to the Future Farmers of America during the 48th Annual State Convention held in Blacksburg last week.

H. B. Pack of Appomattox was the recipient of one of these awards.

Mr. Pack has devoted 34 years of distinguished service to Virginia as a teacher of agricultural education. Following graduation from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, he taught agriculture in Halifax County for six years. He served six years in the United State Army earning the rank of Major.

For the past 28 years he has served as head of agricultural education department at Appomattox County High School. He has served on the State Advisory Council representing the Southside area. Those with whom he worked admired him for the inspiration and encouragement he provided for students and parents.

He is active in local, area and state organizations and has provided outstanding leadership and support for the State FFA organization.

There are two statements about human beings that are true: that all are alike, and that all are different. On those two facts all human wisdom is founded.

Mark Van Doren

Show me a young idealist who is demanding the right to change a world he hasn't lived in long enough to know anything about, or contribute anything to, and I'll show you a pest. But show me a student who "merely wishes to make a good living" and I'll show you a kid who's going to be of service to his fellowmen, because that's the only way he can make a good living.
